About the Program

Liberal Arts is a multidisciplinary system of education that includes a diverse mix of subjects from various disciplines from humanities, journalism management and commerce. The undergraduate Liberal Arts Degree at Manipal University Jaipur offers a curriculum with varied subjects in Social Sciences and Humanities. It follows the suggestions of New Education Policy of the Government of India, offering a multidisciplinary course. Students are offered six courses in three core disciplines of Political Science, Philosophy or Psychology and if they chose to do so, six more subject specific electives such as sociology or journalism, etc can be chosen. Indian Classical Music, Yoga, Language training, computer foundations are some other courses that add to competencies and skills of the students. Thus, it aims to provide a learning experience that empowers students to deal with change, diversity and complexity, to make them problem solvers, critical thinkers and responsible members of the society. Liberal Arts as a stream produces critical thinkers, who have the confidence and flexibility to adapt themselves too the blend of multidisciplinary courses, in an increasing cross-cultural world.

Testimonials

Sunidhi Kushawah
Batch 2020-2023

“ My bachelor's degree in liberal arts was full of knowledge and great experience. It is a course full of learning, culture, fun, and development. Subjects offered during the course give exposure to multiple opportunities. Course is structured in such a way through which you get to explore different subjects be it a hobby, passion or sometimes it is out of the box, but one thing is sure whatever it is, it ends up adding value to your education and is also practically applicable in your life. Faculty are really helpful and supportive, they helped me to improve my academic and interpersonal skills. Overall pursuing Liberal Arts from MUJ was a wonderful experience. It is a highly recommendable course. ”
