Testimonials

Awantika Agrawal

M.A. (International Relations)

After completing my bachelors, I was diligently looking for a specialised course of International Relations . I wanted to learn and grow with the subject dynamically and not just in the theoretical aspect unlike conventional humanities subjects. And here at MUJ, I found the perfect environment to develop my expertise in the subject and understanding of its strategic nuances. The course structure has a multivalent holistic approach with a coverage of all elements foregrounding the discipline. Dissertation and Internship opportunity makes it more interesting and relevant, giving us the edge of practical intellectual exposure.

At MUJ, we have access to extensive infrastructure, phenomenal library and wholesome learning culture. The professors are incredibly supportive and encouraging at every step. As a proud student at MUJ, I firmly believe that pursuing Masters in International Relations here was the best choice for my higher education and long term career goals.

M.A. (International Relations)

The MA International course has been a transformative experience, broadening my horizons and deepening my understanding of global issues. The diverse perspectives in the classroom have enriched my learning journey.

I chose the MA International course to gain a deeper understanding of global affairs, and it has exceeded my expectations.

The faculty is incredibly supportive, and the curriculum is both challenging and rewarding. This course has given me the tools to analyze international relations critically. The interdisciplinary approach has been particularly valuable, allowing me to connect theory with real-world scenarios.

M.A. (International Relations)

My experience at Manipal University Jaipur in the M.A. (International Relations) program has been truly enriching. The curriculum is dynamic, combining strong theoretical foundations with current global issues like Indian Foreign Policy, climate change, and cybersecurity. The faculty are highly knowledgeable and supportive, always encouraging critical thinking and open discussions. The modern campus, excellent library, and vibrant student life create a great learning environment. Overall, the program has helped me build strong academic knowledge, practical skills, and lasting connections. I highly recommend it to anyone interested in global affairs.
