

Manipal University Jaipur
Faculty of Management Commerce & Arts
Department of Liberal Arts & Social Sciences

BA (Honours/Honours with Research) English

(AY 2026 onwards)

Program Outcomes and Program Specific Outcomes

Program Outcomes (POs)

- [PO1]. Disciplinary Knowledge: Demonstrate comprehensive knowledge of English literature, language, literary history, and critical traditions, including Indian and world literatures, across periods and genres.
- [PO2]. Literary and Critical Thinking: Apply literary theories, critical frameworks, and interpretative methods to analyze texts, contexts, and discourses, generating reasoned arguments supported by evidence.
- [PO3]. Language Proficiency and Communication: Exhibit high proficiency in reading, writing, speaking, and listening in English, and communicate effectively in academic, professional, and public settings.
- [PO4]. Research Aptitude: Develop abilities for academic inquiry, including identifying research problems, formulating research questions, reviewing literature, and applying ethical research practices.
- [PO5]. Digital and Information Literacy: Use digital tools and platforms to access, evaluate, curate, and present information, applying academic integrity and responsible digital citizenship.
- [PO6]. Creativity and Aesthetic Appreciation: Demonstrate aesthetic sensitivity and creativity through interpretation, performance, and production of literary/cultural texts (creative writing, theatre, media, etc.).
- [PO7]. Multicultural and Intercultural Competence: Recognize and evaluate cultural diversity, postcolonial contexts, gendered perspectives, and linguistic plurality, fostering inclusivity and intercultural understanding.
- [PO8]. : Ethical Reasoning and Social Responsibility: Apply ethical reasoning in understanding representation, identity, and power in literature and society, contributing responsibly to community and national development.
- [PO9]. Problem-Solving and Employability Skills: Use transferable skills such as critical reasoning, problem-solving, teamwork, leadership, and professional writing for employability and entrepreneurship.
- [PO10]. Lifelong Learning: Demonstrate autonomy and readiness for continuous learning, higher studies, competitive examinations, and evolving professional environments.

Program Specific Outcomes (PSOs)

- [PSO1]. Literary Analysis and Critical Interpretation: Analyze literary and cultural texts through close reading, contextual understanding, and critical approaches, producing coherent interpretations and evidence-based arguments.
- [PSO2]. Literary History, Movements and Comparative Perspectives: Explain the evolution of literature across periods, genres, movements, and critical traditions, including Indian and world literatures, and compare diverse texts, contexts, and ideologies.
- [PSO3]. Language Studies, Linguistics, and Discourse Competence: Apply concepts from language studies, linguistics, stylistics, rhetoric, and discourse analysis to evaluate language use across literary, academic, professional, and social contexts.
- [PSO4]. Writing, Creativity, and Multimodal Communication: Demonstrate competence in academic, creative, and professional writing, and interpret/produce content through multimodal forms such as media texts, digital narratives, theatre/performance and cultural representations.
- [PSO5]. Research, Professional Application, and Employability: Design and execute research-based inquiries (including dissertation/project work in Honors with Research), using appropriate methods, ethical practices, and citation norms; apply English studies skills in domains such as teaching, publishing, journalism, content development, translation, PR, and cultural industries.

Manipal University Jaipur
Faculty of Management Commerce & Arts
Department of Liberal Arts & Social Sciences

Program Educational Objectives (PEOs)

[PEO1]. Academic and Disciplinary Advancement: Graduates will develop strong foundational and advanced knowledge of the English language, literature, and critical traditions, enabling them to pursue higher education, research, and academic excellence in English Studies and allied disciplines.

[PEO2]. Professional Competence and Employability: Graduates will demonstrate effective communication, analytical, digital, and professional skills, preparing them for successful careers in areas such as teaching, publishing, media, content development, journalism, translation, civil services, and corporate communication.

[PEO3]. Social, Ethical, and Global Engagement: Graduates will apply critical and ethical perspectives to interpret texts and cultures, promoting social responsibility, cultural sensitivity, and inclusive citizenship, and contributing